Physical Requirements: It is your responsibility to realistically evaluate your ability to participate in any ice skating activity, investigate the risks and obtain proper equipment and insurance. If you question whether a medical condition may limit your participation, you should seek advice from a competent medical professional prior to any participation in that activity. Every participant takes responsibility upon themselves for treatment of any medical problem or emergency that may occur during any ice skating activity. If you require special medical or personal attention during an ice skating activity, it is your responsibility to provide your own assistant or helper. Idaho IceWorld reserves the right to restrict participation for any reason.

Risks: When you participate in any ice skating activity you may be risking your physical wellbeing. Neither Idaho IceWorld, nor the City of Boise carries medical, life or disability insurance on behalf of any participant. It is impossible to list all of the dangers involved in any activity. Before you participate in any activity, you should become as informed as possible with the risks involved and be as prepared as possible with proper skills and equipment. Participation in such activities and/or use of equipment may result in injury or illness including, but not limited to bodily injury, loss of limb, disease, strains, fractures, partial and/or total paralysis, death or serious disability. Participants are expected to carry any and all insurance appropriate for these risks including medical, life and disability insurance.

I understand these risks and have made the careful decision to assume all risks that arise from any activity at Idaho IceWorld. I am at least 18 years of age, or am the parent/guardian signing on behalf of my minor child. I will not (nor will my heirs or assigns, nor my minor child's heirs or assigns) hold Idaho IceWorld, the City of Boise, or any employee, volunteer or other agent thereof, liable for any claims, damages, injuries, death or property loss that arise from my or my minor child's participation in any Idaho IceWorld activity.
